

Data Use Policy: Living Planet Database

Introduction

This document provides the terms of use for data from the Living Planet Index Database (LPD) which is managed by the Indicators & Assessments Unit at the Zoological Society of London (ZSL) and WWF International (WWF). Potential users must agree to these terms of use prior to accessing the data.

Terms of use

1. The data are supplied only for conservation purposes, scientific analysis or research.
2. The recipient of the data will provide a full and appropriate acknowledgement and citation in any materials or publications derived in part or in whole from the data. The preferred citation format, changing years and date accordingly, is: "LPI 2016. Living Planet Index database. 2016. < www.livingplanetindex.org/>. Downloaded on 24 November 2016".
3. If reproducing raw data from individual records, recipients are advised to credit the original data source, which is included in the data download.
4. For any publications making substantial use of the data – including any global analysis – notification of the LPI team is required. ZSL and WWF also welcome the opportunity for co-authorship, collaboration and comment prior to publication. Expressions of interest can be sent to LivingPlanetIndex@ioz.ac.uk.
5. Reproduction of the dataset or products derived from it, either whole or in part, for direct financial gain is prohibited without prior written permission of ZSL and WWF. If you require permission please contact us at the address below.
6. The recipient will not pass the original datasets on to third parties and will direct all requests for use of the data back to LivingPlanetIndex@ioz.ac.uk.
7. The recipient will not publish the data in their original format, either whole or in part, on a website, FTP site, CD, memory stick or any other media. The recipient should provide a link to the original data source location on the LPI website where appropriate.
8. The recipient may only pass on datasets derived from the data supplied by the LPI database if these derived data are supplied with the same terms of use.

9. Use of these data does not constitute endorsement by ZSL or WWF of any derived products, reports or analyses. ZSL and WWF logos must not be used on any derived products, reports or analyses, or supporting materials, without express permission.
10. ZSL and WWF reserve the right to comment on the accuracy or representation of the data in material produced by a recipient.
11. A copy of all products using data supplied by LPI data will be sent electronically to LivingPlanetIndex@ioz.ac.uk or free of charge to the Indicators & Assessment Unit at the address below.

Disclaimer

ZSL and WWF make no warranties or representations, express or implied, regarding the use of the material appearing in this database with regard to their correctness, reliability, accuracy, or otherwise. The material and geographic designations in this dataset do not imply the expressions of any opinion whatsoever on the part of ZSL or WWF concerning the legal status of any country, territory or area, nor concerning the delimitation of its frontiers or boundaries. Neither ZSL, WWF nor their affiliated or related entities or its content providers shall be responsible or liable to any person, firm or corporation for any loss, damage, injury, claim or liability of any kind or character based on or resulting from any information contained in the dataset. ZSL and WWF may update or make changes to the data provided at any time without notice; however, ZSL and WWF make no commitment to update the information contained therein.

Errors and omissions

ZSL and WWF endeavour to maintain accurate and up-to-date data at all times. However, if errors or omissions are identified, the user should notify ZSL and WWF using the details below so that they can be corrected in future releases of the data.
